

Overcurrent Device Recycling Program

Dear Branch Manager,

Welcome to the Cooper Bussmann® Overcurrent Device Recycling Program – a nationwide program dedicated to the recycling of ANY manufacturer’s fuses, circuit breakers and electrical contactors. Cooper Bussmann applauds you for taking a proactive role in the preservation of our environment.

The Overcurrent Device Recycling Program is easy. To get started, just follow these simple steps.

1. Setup the display by folding the lid of the box open.
2. Inform your staff and customers that a recycle container is available for overcurrent devices.
3. Display the recycle container in a prominent area for your customers to take advantage of recycling.
4. Accept ANY manufacturers fuses, circuit breakers, and electrical contactors.
5. Ship your full box back and a new box will arrive within 3 weeks.

Please DO NOT ACCEPT products that are not fuses, circuit breakers or electrical contactors.

The Cooper Bussmann Overcurrent Device Recycling Program works on an inventory level system. When you have returned a full recycle container to Cooper Bussmann for recycling, your branch will automatically be registered to receive a replenishment order.

If you have a need to contact Cooper Bussmann for recycling questions, please call 800-544-2570.

Overcurrent Device Recycling Program

Thank you for participating in the Cooper Bussmann® Overcurrent Device Recycling Program. Recycling fuses, circuit breakers and electrical contactors has never been easier, Just follow these simple steps.

Step 1:

Place the pre-assembled recycle box in a prominent area on your showroom counter.

Step 2:

Fill the recycle box with ANY brand of fuses, circuit breakers or electrical contactors.

Step 3:

When the recycle box is full, simply fold over and seal the top using the pre-applied adhesive strip. Print your return address on the pre-paid, pre-addressed shipping label.

Step 4:

Add your recycle box to your daily UPS pick-up. Once your shipment has been received at the recycling facility, Cooper Bussmann will automatically schedule more boxes to be sent to you location.
